

Job Title: Young People's Engagement Officer

Salary: £10.668

Hours: 16 per week

Location: Leicester City and travel across the city, county and Rutland

Duration of post: One year, fixed-term contract

Introduction

Leicester Rape Crisis provides a confidential and free service to any woman or girl who has been raped or sexually assaulted, recently or in the past. We have secured a one-year grant from the ROSA to enable us to deliver a programme of workshops aimed at increasing young people's knowledge and understanding of sexual harassment.

About Leicester Rape Crisis

Leicester Rape Crisis (LRC) is a feminist organisation which aims to:

- Support survivors of rape or sexual abuse aged 13+. We work to empower survivors and help them to maintain control of their lives.
- Raise awareness about rape, sexual abuse and sexual violence.
- Provide information, guidance, training, and expertise within the community.
- Contribute to policy initiatives and strategies aimed at improving service provision for survivors.
- Actively challenge the values, beliefs and behaviours which contribute to sexual and gender-based violence.
- Work in partnership with local service providers and communities to promote the values of LRC.

Main Purpose of the post:

To work in partnership with a wide range of organisations in order to deliver a programme of workshops aimed at engaging young people across the city, county and Rutland in order to raise their knowledge and understanding of sexual harassment and its impact on those affected.

Main duties:

- To review the current young people's workshop materials and produce new workshop materials aimed at increasing young people's knowledge and understanding of sexual harassment.
- To work in partnership with schools, youth groups and sports organisations in order to deliver a programme of workshops aimed at increasing young people's understanding of sexual harassment.
- To produce project publicity materials.
- To work with the CEO in order to monitor and evaluate the project.
- To ensure that all workshop sessions are monitored, and information collated to show the range of users.

As an occupational requirement, the post is open to women only under the exemption afforded by schedule 9 part 1 of the Equality Act 2010

The post is subject to an enhanced DBS check. To apply for the role please contact karon.phillips@jasminehouse.org.uk
