

SOS Rape Crisis is a local charity that is dedicated to supporting individuals who have survived of sexual violence in our communities.

The local charity provides confidential and non-judgemental support for survivors of any form of sexual abuse that has occurred at any time in their lives – whether it has occurred recently, a long time ago or is still happening.

SOS Rape Crisis supports survivors who live in the area of Southend-on-Sea, Castle Point and Rochford.

~~~~~*~~~~~

SOS Rape Crisis are looking to recruit an ISVA to provide specialist support to victims going through the Criminal Justice System as well as provide emotional and practical support through Advocacy.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                  |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Job Role:                                                                                                                                                                                           | ISVA (Independent Sexual Violence Advisor) - Qualified                                    |
| Hours:                                                                                                                                                                                              | Part Time arrangement at 21 hours per week (flexible to meet the needs of the service)    |
| Salary:                                                                                                                                                                                             | £27,905 - £29,636 per annum pro rata                                                      |
| Qualifications:                                                                                                                                                                                     | ISVA qualification or working toward an ISVA qualification – achievable within two years. |
| Experience:                                                                                                                                                                                         | Proven experience of supporting individual clientsExperience of partnership working  |
| Responsibilities: To provide specialist support to victims going through the Criminal Justice System. To develop appropriate support plans for each client ensuring their individual needs are met. |                                                                                                  |

How to apply –

For more information on the post or for an application form with Role Description & Person Specification– please contact Laura Burroughs via email to manager@sosrc.org.uk or call on 01702 667590

Closing date for applications: 17:00 hours Sunday 5th April 2020

Interviews are scheduled for: week beginning 13th April 2020

