

SOS Rape Crisis is a local charity that is dedicated to supporting individuals who have survived of sexual violence in our communities.

The local charity provides confidential and non-judgemental support for survivors of any form of sexual abuse that has occurred at any time in their lives – whether it has occurred recently, a long time ago or is still happening.

SOS Rape Crisis supports survivors who live in the area of Southend-on-Sea, Castle Point and Rochford.

~~~~~*~~~~~

SOS Rape Crisis are looking to recruit a Young Persons Worker to provide a group support programme for young survivors as well as deliver awareness sessions and training for schools and colleges across the Southend, Castle Point and Rochford, Essex geographical area.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                             |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Job Role:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Young Persons Worker                                                                                                                                                 |
| Hours:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Part Time arrangement at 21 hours per week (flexible to meet the needs of the service)                                                                               |
| Salary:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | £26,317 - £27,905 per annum pro rata                                                                                                                                 |
| Qualifications:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Qualification in youth work, social work, counselling, group work or similar.                                                                                        |
| Experience:                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Proven experiences of working with young, vulnerable PeopleExperience of facilitating support or therapeutic group work.Experience of delivering training. |
| Responsibilities: To facilitate a group work programme for young people (aged 11-25) who have been affected by sexual violence. Sessions will focus on the young person's responses to their experiences, coping strategies, safety and risk-taking behaviours with the aim of alleviation of, as far as possible, the short- and long-term effects of sexual violence. |                                                                                                                                                                             |

How to apply –

For more information on the post or for an application form with Role Description & Person Specification– please contact Laura Burroughs via email to manager@sosrc.org.uk or call on 01702 667590

Closing date for applications: 17:00 hours Sunday 26th April 2020

Interviews are scheduled for: week beginning 4th May 2020

